PART III—Section 2

NOTIFICATIONS BY THE HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

IN THE HIGH COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Dated 6—7*th October* 1933.

BRIEF REVIEW OF THE WORK DONE BY THE SESSIONS JUDGES AND MAGISTRATES DURING THE QUARTER ENDING JUNE 1933.

I Delay.—There was delay in the receipt of returns from the District Magistrate, Hassan. He is requested to see that the returns are submitted in time in future.

(including the Additional Sessions Judge, Bangalore) and Assistant Sessions Judges (3).

II Original Criminal.—Inclusive of 14 Sessions Cases pending at the end of the previous quarter, there were 40 Sessions Cases (against 48 in the previous quarter) for disposal. Of these, 23 were disposed of by the Sessions Judges, 5 were transferred to the Assistant Sessions Judges for disposal and 12 were left pending.

In addition to the 3 Sessions Cases pending in the Courts of the Assistant Sessions Judges, there were for disposal 7 cases during the quarter under review and out of them, 5 were pending in the Court of the Assistant Sessions Judge, Bangalore, and 2 in the Court of the Assistant Sessions Judge, Shimoga.

District Magistrates (8)

Of the 10 Regular Cases for disposal, 6 cases, (2 by the District Magistrate, Tumkur, 1 by the District Magistrate, Hassan, 2 by the District Magistrate, Shimoga, and 1 by the District Magistrate, Chitaldrug) were disposed of and 4 cases were left pending of which the one case pending over three months in the District Magistrate's Court, Hassan, needs early disposal.

Special Magistrates.

At the close of the previous quarter, there were pending 2603 cases and since then, 2894 cases were instituted, making in all, 5497 for disposal during the quarter. Of these, 2964 cases were disposed of, leaving a pendency of 2533 cases resulting in the reduction of the pendency by 70 cases.

The number of cases pending over six months which was 678 at the end of the previous quarter was reduced to 589 during the quarter under review. The largest number of such cases left pending was in the City Magistrate's Court, Bangalore, viz., 87 followed by the Courts of the First Class Magistrate, Chickmagalur (43), the First Magistrate, Tumkur (42), the First Class Magistrate, Madhugiri (37), the First Magistrate, Bangalore (35), the First Magistrate, Mandya (33), the First Magistrate, Shimoga (28), the City Magistrate, Mysore (24), the Second Magistrate, Shimoga (23), and the First Class Magistrate, Nanjangud (22).

The District Magistrates are requested to direct the Subordinate Magistrates concerned, to make every endeavour to bring down the pendency of such cases very early.

Ex-Officio Magistrates.

Inclusive of 69 cases pending at the close of the previous quarter, there were for disposal 87 cases. Of these, 56 were disposed of and 31 were left pending. Out of them, 2 cases (1 in the First Class Magistrate's Court, Kolar Sub-Division and 1 in the First Class Magistrates Court, Tarikere Sub-Division) are pending over six months and they need very early disposal.

Bench Courts.

Of the 4287 cases (against 4640) that were for disposal, 2283 cases were disposed of leaving a pendency of 2004 cases (against 2494) with the result that there was a considerable reduction in the pending file, but the pendency of cases over six months rose from 95 to 127. The largest number of such cases pending was in the Bench Courts at Mysore (30), Shimoga (30), Arsikere (34), and Chikmagalur (13).

Every endeavour should be made for their early disposal.

Sessions Judges (4) including the Additional Sessions Judge, Bangalore.

(a) Appeals.

III Appellate Work.—Taking both Regular and Miscellaneous Appeals together, there were 193 (against 239) appeals for disposal. Of these, 92 were disposed of and 101 (against 88) appeals were left pending (63, 18, 18 and 2 in the Courts of the Sessions Judge, Bangalore, Mysore, Shimoga and the Additional Sessions Judge, Bangalore, respectively).

(b) Revision Petitions.

Inclusive of 36 Revision Petitions pending at the close of the previous quarter, there were 65 (against 72) petitions for disposal. Of these, 15 (against 36) were disposed of and 50 were left pending.

District Magistrates.

There were 77 Regular Appeals and 65 Revision Petitions for disposal. Of these, 57 Regular Appeals (including 6 transferred) and 43 Revesion Petitions were disposed of leaving a pendency of 20 Appeals and 22 Revision Petitions.

Special Magistrates.

Of the 25 appeals that were for disposal during the quarter, 19 (including 2 transferred) were disposed of and 6 were left pending.

CIVIL SIDE.

Supplemental rules dated 5th October 1933, in supersession of those sanctioned in G. O. No. F. 4597-8—Cts. 59-23-15, dated 1st March 1930, to Civil Rule of Practice No. 153, dated 28th January 1913, as amended from time to time.

English Copyists.

40. English copies granted by the Civil Courts in Bangalore and Mysore, except in the case of Maps, plans, etc., shall be type-written. No one who is not thoroughly conversant with typing shall be appointed as an English Copyist.

41. The number of English Copyists appointed in each of the copying establishments of the courts at Bangalore and Mysore, shall not be greater than will admit under ordinary circumstances of each Typist Copyist earning Rs 30 per month, and the number shall be proportionately reduced if the average earnings fall regularly below this sum.

42. The services of English Copyists whose work is inaccurate or in other respects unsatisfactory should be dispensed with.

43. Copies granted in the Kanarese language shall as hitherto be manuscript, and the number of Kanarese Copyists shall be regulated according to Rule 30.

Copying Sheets.

44. Type written copies shall be made on impressed sheets to be used exclusively for this purpose, and embossed in different colours of the value of three annas (green) and one anna six pies (blue) respectively. The latter denomination of copying sheets shall be used for making extra copies not exceeding three applied for at the same time as the original and made by the Typist Copyist by the carbon process at the same time as the original.

45. The number of words to be typed on each sheet shall not be less than one hundred and fifty.

Apportionment of fees.

46. On each copying sheet of the value of three annas, four pies represent the payment to Government on account of the cost of paper and printing and commission to Stamp Vendors, etc., six pies will go to the Examiner and two annas two pies to the Typist Copyist. On each copying sheet of the value of one anna six pies, similarly four pies represent the payment to Government, two pies to the examiner and one anna to the Copyist.

47. Typist Copyists shall provide at their own cost the Type-writer ribbon, carbon sheets, etc., required for making the copies.

48. Kanarese copies shall as hitherto be made on copying sheets of the value of two annas.

49. These rules shall remain in force tentatively for three years from 1st October 1933.
